Boston – Friday afternoon

Dear Deborah –

I have not a minutes time to ~~lose~~ write to you – if those two busy bees whose whole names are fixed upon their sentimental gowns – have done their duty – it would have been here – but I am so poorly * – Mary Robbins is here to stay with me day & night – Hannah has called – & J. P. Bradlee has called & Elizabeth Bushnell – & the hall has been in session – & I hasting the Castle & quite unfit to do it – & I hasting the Castle & quite unfit to do so – Miss Fisher was gone before you rec'd by me & came to me and no chance to speak to her state of mind – I am quite disappointed at this all things & should come right home were it not for a desire I have to be in town on Sunday – what you think of Quincy & Jackson ask such fools that they have got Stanton & Leverett with others to speak at the Funeral this Meeting which comes off Sunday night – No need of words – We have not seen them since this unpleasant affair – I called yesterday on E. Mortimer & he has gone – who is I think nephew to Judge Story Jamaica – I meant to go to the Circuit Court Friday – I went to go with him & appear to get a good place for me Lincoln the law – quite a green youth – I agree to go – Warren is gone to Cohasset comes up tomorrow – She says has been with herself – Quincy Hosmer me yesterday under seal of secrecy but as it is in the paper this morning it is out – Your Cousin Abby has probably written you greatly – I have a letter from

110

Write to Annie about the Court

Boston Oct 26. 1842

[illegible]

Miss Lydia Jones
Plymouth

From Lydia Jones - consolatory not interesting — no time for more with best love to all I am in great haste yours ever Caroline

P.S. Dec 12. 101